Rerep SA  dated 10/24/69 at BA.

Rerep is not being disseminated for reasons indicated herein.

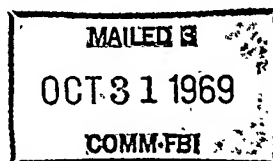

It appears that a portion of the first sentence at the top of page 18 has been omitted. Please clarify and furnish appropriate amended page.

The synopsis reflects that only Harry J. McGuirk admitted receiving currency from  whereas details reflect that McGuirk and  both admitted receiving cash from . Furnish Bureau amended synopsis clarifying this.

It is suggested that BA consider setting forth leads to check the Army file of  to determine if any inquiries were made by Brewster's office in an effort to keep  from being transferred to Vietnam. Consideration should also be given to setting forth leads to contact the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO) to determine whether Robert Douglas obtained any OEO contracts as a result of influence from Brewster's office.

Synopsis:

This investigation is being limited to specific allegation pertaining to captioned individuals. Information has been received from [REDACTED] that he cashed a $50,000 check in early September, 1968, drawn on the account of ANNE MOEN BULLIT BREWSTER and in turn gave this money to various Baltimore residents as election day money during the primary in early September, 1968. [REDACTED] has alleged that the money might have gone into BREWSTER's account from CARMEL OFFIE, who is a dealer in surplus material and who had been assisted in an unknown manner in the past by BREWSTER. All alleged recipients of this money have been interviewed with negative results with the exception of HARRY J. MC GUIRK and [REDACTED] who have each admitted receiving $5,000 currency from [REDACTED] during the primary election campaign, September, 1968. [REDACTED] have been subpoenaed and USA [REDACTED] Baltimore, is withholding prosecutive opinion at this time.

X A signed statement was obtained from [redacted] Maryland, August 4, 1969, incorporating information concerning various activities of former Senator DANIEL B. BREWSTER, Maryland. [redacted] former Senator BREWSTER from [redacted] had furnished the information in this statement during the course of several interviews during June and July, 1969. The portion of the statement pertaining to CARMEL OFFIE has been reproduced and it appears as follows:

b6
b7C

CARMEL OFFIE
Allegedly a Dealer in Surplus Arms, Etc.

Prior to August, 1968, I had several telephone conversations with CARMEL OFFIE, <sup>Ma</sup> who I believe dealt in surplus weapons sales to foreign countries. BREWSTER frequently talked to OFFIE by phone and met him in New York at least on one occasion. OFFIE on occasion would call BREWSTER from his office in Paris, France, prior to the primary in 1968. During June, 1968, when BREWSTER and I were discussing money for the campaign, BREWSTER made a comment that he would be getting some money through OFFIE.

There will be my handwritten notes on copies of letters sent to OFFIE by BREWSTER in BREWSTER's alphabetical letter file. This file was packed and sent to BREWSTER's residence around January 3, 1969, by myself and <sup>Ma</sup>

I assumed from numerous conversations with BREWSTER prior to the primary election of 1968 that money was channeled to BREWSTER from OFFIE by way of Mrs. ANNE BREWSTER's personal bank account in Paris, France, into her personal checking account at the Chemical Bank, New York City. I assume but have no personal knowledge that the $50,000 check made out to cash given to me may have been funds originating from OFFIE.

Re Baltimore airtel 11/5/69.

Enclosed for Baltimore are nine copies of an insert reflecting investigation conducted at the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO).

For the information of the Bureau, extensive investigation at OEO developed no information indicating any contracts by Baltimore Electronic Associates, Inc., and no one located who recognized name of the firm of ROBERT L. DOUGLAS. Investigation included inquiry at the Contract Office, the Procurement Division, the Mid Atlantic Region which covers Baltimore and the Liaison Offices of the Headquarters and Mid Atlantic Office.

Re: Bureau airtel to BA, 10/31/69 and report of SA [redacted] dated 10/24/69, at Baltimore.

Enclosed for the Bureau are five copies each of an ammended FD-204 and five copies each of page 17a.

The enclosed FD-204 should replace the one appearing in referenced report and the enclosed page 17a should be placed in re report. This was inadvertently omitted at the time the report was prepared.

The Bureau's suggestions as to future investigation are appreciated and there is a lead set forth hereafter for WFO to contact the Office of Economic Opportunity (OEO).

The lead is not being set forth at this time to check the Army file of [redacted] to determine if any inquiries were made by Brewster's Office in an effort to keep [redacted] from being transferred to Vietnam.

This is not being done as it appears at the moment that the Primary Election Day money, 1968, paid by [redacted] did not come from CARMEL OFFIE. The [redacted] reflect that this money was paid from proceeds of a check deposited to ANNE BREWSTER's account, July 15, 1968, in the amount of $101,350.45, which was a check drawn on an unidentified account at the Maryland National Bank, Baltimore. The review is continuing to possibly identify the maker of this check.

LEAD:

WFO

AT WASHINGTON, D.C.

WFO should refer to BA report of SA [redacted] dated 8/5/69, captioned Senator RUSSELL B. LONG; ET AL (WFO File 58-1142), pages 102-108, and thereafter make an inquiry at the OEO to determine whether or not the firm of ROBERT L. DOUGLAS, known as Baltimore Electronic Associates, Inc., 2313 Holmwood Avenue, Baltimore, obtained any OEO contracts as a result of influence from Brewster's Office.
